LUATION see helew PLACE OSTAINED 25 April 1952 25X1 E OF CONTENT 25X1 E OSTAINED 23 April 1952 ENCLOSURES (NO. & YPFS) 25X1 ARKS Necessia of savarresh h are savarresh 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & YPFS) 25X1 LETTER Marking 1952, there were so troop movements are quartening of through in the area of Butustneeth-Rosterbern-Valariaborga (Y. 52/1 68). In the case of the Year 1952 area of Butustneeth-Rosterbern-Valariaborga (Y. 52/1 68). In the case of the Year 1952 area of Butustneeth-Rosterbern-Valariaborga (Y. 52/1 68). In the case of the Year 1952 area of Butustneeth-Rosterbern-Valariaborga (Y. 52/1 68). In the case of the Year 1952 area of Butustneeth-Rosterbern-Valariaborga (Y. 52/1 68). In the case of the Year 25X1 2	OUNTRY	CLASSIFICATION SAPPROPRIES CONTROL CON
LUATION 25X1 E OF CONTENT. E OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 23 April 1952 ERRICES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 6 MPE) ARRICS Nacerbis of carayreph h and perspends 5 Mare maxicusty recognition 1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of butterned-Taxtumberg-viciantoberga (N 52/1 60). In the area of the Finne Hill north of Technom (1.5 %) 71), only a carrying 1-3h tender common the property of the finne seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near hebartaberga which 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X2 25X2 3. Here trains each consisting of 15 fletome, carrying 1-3h tender and escorting personnel, was loaded at the "echicartisact (N 51/1 90) retiroed 25X station on 22 farch and were seen passing through Cotha (Y 51/2 05) on the sawa25X day. 3. Several low recognition and the first of the first fletome, carrying 1-3h tender for the first fletome and the first fletome of the first fletome fle	-3
ELIMINON are helder PLACE OBTAINED E OF CONTENT. DATE PREPARED 23 April 1952 ERENCES ERENCES ENCLOSURES ORG. 6 TWEN AGRES. DATE PREPARED 25 April 1952 ERENCES ENCLOSURES ORG. 6 TWEN MARKS. Descrots of caragraph h and meruproph 0 MARKS. Descrots of the Finne hill north of Weinar (1: 52/3 57), only a small unit with 3 asphibious care were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near behaviours which attain on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Octaha (P 51/3 10) relived 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Octaha (P 51/3 10) of or the same25X day. 3. Geveral low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Obrdard (P 51/3 10) whichen railroad line, souther Ootha, near Petrivods in late larch. They were compiled by a unit weather red-devoted black may be seen at the law wooden barracks buildings. (2) The quarters of the Kinell (F 51/4 97) troop tradings (2) The quarters of the marks of the tax saming lot mutilings. (2) The quarters of the marks of the tax saming lot mutilings. (2) The quarters of the marks of the tax saming lot mert has 20X to see that of the learned to Caragraph of the problem of the same patch and the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) The quarters of the marks of the tax saming lot mert has 20X to see the same patch and the low same patch and the larch cords of the tax saming lot mert has 20X to see the same patch and the larch to the saming lot mert has 20X to see the same patch and the larch to the saming lot patch and the larch to the saming lot the root by allows to each at the saming lot patch and the same patch and the same patch and the larch to the saming lot patch and the larch to the saming lot patch and the larch to the sam	/FIO angular source consentration
ECCONTENT 28X1 2	VALUATION	see helow PLACE OBTAINED 25X
E OBTAINED	ATE OF CONT
ERENCES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 6 TWFE) MARKS. Exceeded of caragraph h and paragraph 0 MARKS. Exceeded of caragraph h and paragraph 0 MARKS. Discounts of caragraph h and paragraph 0 25X1 1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Entistanch-Hastemberg-tckartsberga (K 52/3 66). In the erea of the Finne hill north of Weinar (E 52/3 57), only a small unit with 3 amphibicum cars were seen. Nowever, there were a number of individual trucks near Echartsberga which 25X1 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Okadurul C 51/3 15)—bibleen railroad line, southeof Cothe, near Fetriroad in late linch. They were counted by a unit wearing red-bordered black consists with artillery insignia. approximately 150—m existent, some of which were torsed by external conditions with a construction destroit serial sear seen with two constructions extend the formation red and accomply trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings, (2) 1. The quarters of the Kindel (E 51/8 97) troop training grounds were still unconstruction extends were seen real leagues bupuits. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No W was widened on each stde of the road by aboast 2 metors from the junction to Dowernfeld morth of Creasen Lupnits as Ear as point 355.5; b has northerne of Creasen Lupnits. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5 Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the point and the first line of Stockhausen-Kindel, later well-descent the internal of Stockhausen-Kindel, later well-descent the internal of Stockhausen-Kindel, later well-descent later well-descent and the later later later by the more first later later later the town	25) ATE OBTAINE	DATE PREPARED 23 April 1952
25X1 25X1 1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Buttsteed-Rastenberg-bekartsberga (K 52/3 60). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinar (K 52/3 67) and a small unit with 3 apphilians cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 fletcars, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Techtorstacet (K 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/1 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen in a wood patch along the Onzella Farch. They were coepined by a unit weering rad-bevelored black canaltes with artillary tantignia. Sellator, sense of which were toyed by categoritics and sense by trucks, were seen at the Low modeln heursche buildings. (2) 1. The quarters of the Kindel (F 51/8 97) troop training grounds were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen reclasing the structs of the learn-to-roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lyndia tes far as point 35X,5, k in north-northeast of Crossen Lyndia central seen in as point 35X,5, k in northeast of Crossen Lyndia. The true parallels were seen at the Kinemoch (L 51/1 76) railrood station on 27 Eeroch. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the palets were seen at the Kinemoch (L 51/1 76) railrood station on 27 Eeroch. They later left the torm in the direction of Stockhousen Windel.	25X1 EFERENCES
1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Buttetaedt-Restemberg-tokartsbergs (E. 52/J 66). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinar (E. 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphiblous cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near bokartsbergs which 25X1 25X1 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 fletters, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Hechterstaedt (E. 51/H 96) reilroad 25X1 station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F. 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Obradius of Cotha, near Petriroda in late Farch. They were occupied by a unit weering red-bordered black consulets with artillary inclinia. approximately 150-am. Celliber, sees of which were toged by catesyallors and seese by trucks, were seen at the low mooth herrocks buildings. (2) h. The quarters of the Kindel (F. 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen register, the struts of the Lean-to-rofts of the tank arriving to borth-northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eiginay 50 Ch was widened on each side of the rood by absolved mach 2 metain from the junction to Ensembled on the tree praining grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 nan. 25X1 Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the put the control of the tree than 200 to 300 nan. The put the first were seen at the Missenach (E. 51/H 76) railroad station on 2T Earch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhussen on trock Loter vehicles seen in bisenach, driving in the direction of Stockhussen-Kindel, not rehicles seen in bisenach, driving in the direction of Stockhussen-Kindel,	AGES3	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
25X1 1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Buttstaedt-Rastenberg-lokartsberga (E. 52/3 60). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinar (E. 52/3 57), only a small unit with 3 amphibious cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near bekartsberge which 25X1 25X1 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flatears, carrying T-34 tanks and escorting personnel, was leaded at the lechterstaedt (E. 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 farch and were seen passing through Cotha (F. 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdrif (F. 51/J 15)-balchen railroad line, southeaf Cotha, near retrirods in late larch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black canalets with extill ery intignia. approximately 150-cm celliber, some of thich were toged by externallors and some by trucks, were seen at the low mooden barracks buildings. (2) 1. The quarters of the Kindel (F. 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 hpril. Individual construction details were seen relacing the sturts of the Loundto roofs of the tank marking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Fighway no 3h mas underdo on each side of the roof by shoots rever seen. Fighway no 3h mas underdo on cach side of the roof by shoots rever seen. Fighway no 3h mas underdo on cach side of the roof by shoots a reverse from the junction to Demanded on cach side of the roof by shoots rever seen. Fighway no 3h mas underdo on cach side of the roof by shoots a reverse from the junction to Demanded on cach side of the roof by shoots a reverse from the junction to Demanded on the constructions were seen. Fighway no 3h mas underdo on cach side of the roof by shoots are seen from the plant leaf of the construction of th	EMARKS	Excerpts of paragraph 4 and paragraph 8
25X1 1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Entistaedt-Rastenberg-Eckartsberga (E 52/J 56). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinar (E 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphiluse are were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 25X2 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohradruf (E 51/J 15)-indeben railroad line, southeof Othe, near Petrirode in late liarch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black concludes with artillowy insignia. approximately 150-cm celliber, some of which were toyed by caterpliers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) 16. The quarters of the Kindel (E 51/E 57) troop training (rounds were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen relacing the struts of the leam-to roofs of the tank angling for words were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen reclacing the struts of the leam-to roofs of the tank angling for words were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction to Demernfeld north of Creasen Lupnitz. When the construction there seems a Eighway No Unwar wided on each side of the roof by almost 2 meters from the junction to Demernfeld north of Creasen Lupnitz as far as point 35.5.5, ke northeest of Grossen Lupnitz. The tree praining grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 men. 25X1 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the point to Eucerhal 150 men. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 100 men. 25X1 10	angka nakadari - saga pada dila dikerakan halika (Promise e 1924)	vers mevicusly reported
25X1 1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Puttstaedt-Rastenberg-ickartsberga (E 52/J 56). In the area of the Finne hill north of Teinar (E 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphitus ears were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Obredruf (E 51/J 15)-indeben railroad line, southeof Cotha, near Petriroda in late larch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black connlets with artillory insignia. approximately 150-cm celiber, some of which were toyed by caterylllors and some by trucks, were seen at the lew wooden barracks buildings. (2) 16. The quarters of the Kindel (E 51/E 97) troop training grounds were still uncerplants of the Land-to roofs of the task parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, lk northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The tree p training grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the parking from the complete seen at the Mesensch (E 51/H 76) railroad station on 27 Horch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer websides seen in Miseasch, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer websides seen in Miseasch, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer websides seen in Miseasch, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer applied to the parking for the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer applied to the day the first the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer applied to the change in Miseasch, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 150 mer applied to the change in Miseasch and with the large state of the change in Miseasch and with the large the Change in Miseasch and with the large the Change in Miseasch and with the large the Change i	(1	aETVIII ARY
1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Buttestaedt-Rastenberg-Mckartsberga (E 52/J 60). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinard (E 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphibious cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 13 flatcars, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnal, was loaded at the Mechterstaedt (E 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/H 96) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (E 51/J 15)-Whichen railroad line, southed Gotha, near Petriroda in late Harch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black coulsels with artillery insignia. approximately 150-cm Celibor, some of which were toged by enterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the Louwoden barracks buildings, (2) h. The quarters of the Kindel (E 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the loans to roofs of the tank sanking lot borth-mortheast of Crossen Lupnitz. He new constructions were seen. Eighway to 3h was widened on each side of the rood by almost 2 autors from the junction to Equencial to a construction for the root than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the patch. They tree training grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 men. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION FIGURE OFFICIALS OFFICIALS ONLY		AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT
1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Buttestaedt-Rastenberg-Ickartsberga (E 28/J 60). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinard (E 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphibious cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 25X1 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flatears, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnal, was loaded at the Eachterstaedt (E 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Gotha (E 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Gotha (E 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Gotha, near Februroda in late Harch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black considered in late Earch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black considered by insignia. approximately 150-mm celibor, some of which were toxed by eaterpillors and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden berracks buildings, (2) h. The quarters of the Kindel (E 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the loan-to-roofs of the tank backing lot porth-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. Ho new constructions were seen. Highway 16 3h was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 noters from the junction to Bouenteld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, h km northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The trep training grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 nen. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the possible were seen at the Missensch (E 51/H 76) railroad station on 27 Earch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck Delaysified. CLASSIFICATION FOR TREAL FOR ALL TREAL FOR TREAL FO
1. On 1 April 1952, there were no troop movements or quartering of troops in the area of Buttestaedt-Rastenberg-Ickartsberga (E 52/J 60). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinard (E 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphibious cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 fletcars, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnal, was loaded at the Techterstaedt (E 51/H 96) reilroad 25X station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Cotha (F 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (F 51/J 15)-Walchen railroad line, souther Gotha, near Petriroda in late Harch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black capallets with artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm Celibor, some of which were toged by enterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) h. The quarters of the Kindel (F 51/H 97) troop training frounds were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the loan-to-roofs of the tank sucking lot borth-mortheast of Crossen Lupnitz. He new constructions were seen. Eighway 16 3h was widened on each side of the rood by almost 2 autors from the junction to Bouerhelen orth of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, ken northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trep training grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the patch on a 27 Kerch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck persuited. (1.51/H 76) railroad station on 27 Kerch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck persuited.
area of Buttstaedt-Rastenberg-Eckartsberga (K 52/J 60). In the area of the Finne hill north of Weinar (E 52/J 57), only a small unit with 3 amphibious cars were seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which 25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 fletcars, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Techterstaect (M 51/H 96) reilroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (F 51/J 15)-Enleden railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Fetriroda in late Farch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black canalets with crillery inclinia. and guas of an 25X1 approximately 150-am feliber, some of which were toyed by exterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) 11. The quarters of the Kindel (F 51/F 97) troop training grounds were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to-roofs of the tank parking low north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No 5h was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Ecuarded morth of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, h km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The troop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. The soldiers werring red-bordered black epaulets and with the		On I demil 1059 there were no these managements or quantoning of treess in the
25X1 2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flatears, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnal, was loaded at the Techterstaedt (M 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 Farch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (F 51/J 15)-Enleden railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Fetriroda in late Farch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black coanlets with artillery insignia. Individual construction buildings, (2) and guas of an 25X1 approximately 150-mm celibor, some of which were toged by eaterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings, (2). 1. The quarters of the Kindel (F 51/F 97) troop training grounds were still uncompleted on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the structs of the lean-to-roofs of the tank parking low north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Fighay No Oh was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Douernfeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The tree training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the	i.	area of Buttstaedt-Rastenberg-Wckartsberga (M 52/J 68). In the area of the Finne
2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flatcars, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Mechterstaect (M 51/H 96) railroad 25% station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/H 96) on the same25% day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (T 51/J 15)-Nalchen railroad line, southeof Cotha, near Petriroda in late Earch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black consulets with artillery insignia. and guns of an 25%1 approximately 150-mm caliber, some of which were toged by caterpillors and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden berracks buildings. (2) h. The quarters of the Kindel (T 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still uncocupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No 3h was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Equernical north of Grossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, k km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 mem. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the phothes were seen at the Misenach (L 51/H 76) railroad station on 27 Earch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck 25%1 lotor vehicles seen in Misenach, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, 10 the phothes of t	· .	seen. However, there were a number of individual trucks near Eckartsberga which
2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flatears, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Mechterstaedt (M 51/H 96) railroad 25% station on 22 March and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/J 06) on the same25% day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (F 51/J 15)-Malchen railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Petriroda in late March. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black consulets with artillery indignia. And guns of an 25% approximately 150-mm calibor, some of which were toyed by caterpillors and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden berracks buildings. And quarters of the Kindel (F 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. He new constructions were seen. Eighway No 3h was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Equernical north of Grossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, h km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the hortheast left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck hortheast point the change in Classified. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Deciment No. Decime
2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flaters, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Machterstaedt (M 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 March and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (F 51/J 15)-Maleben railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Petriroda in late March. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black consilets with artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm faliber, some of which were toyed by caterpillars and gams of an 25X1 approximately 150-mm faliber, some of which were toyed by caterpillars and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) 14. The quarters of the Kindel (E 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No Oh was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Beuerifield north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, he has northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the	25X1
2. Three trains each consisting of 18 flaters, carrying T-3h tanks and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Mechterstaedt (M 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 March and were seen passing through Gotha (M 51/H 96) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (M 51/J 15)-Maleben railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Petriroda in late March. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black consilets with artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm feliber, some of which were toyed by caterpillers and gams of an 25X1 approximately 150-mm feliber, some of which were toyed by caterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) 14. The quarters of the Kindel (M 51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No Oh was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Beuerifeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, kkm northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the	2574
station on 22 Earch and were seen passing through Gotha (F 51/J 06) on the same25X day. 3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (F 51/J 15)-Earleben railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Fetriroda in late Earch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black conclets with artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm celliber, some of which were toged by caterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) 1. The quarters of the Kindel (F 51/M 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tark parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. He new constructions were seen. Fighway No Oh was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Ecuernical north of Gressen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The troop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not nore than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the		Three trains each consisting of 18 flatcars, carrying T-34 tanks
3. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen in a wood patch along the Ohrdruf (: 51/J 15)-Malcben railroad line, southeof Cotha, near Petriroda in late Harch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black equalets with artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm Califor, some of which were toged by caterpillars and guns of an 25X1 approximately 150-mm Califor, some of which were toged by caterpillars and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden barracks buildings. (2) 10. The quarters of the Kindel (1.51/K 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No 34 was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Deuernfeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, k km northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the peaulets were seen at the Misenach (L. 51/H 76) railroad station on 27 Earch. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck 25X1 Notor vehicles seen in Misenach, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, CLASSIFICATION FOR TREEL AND OFFICIALS ONLY	Ļ	and escorting personnel, was loaded at the Mechterstaedt (M 51/H 96) railroad 25X station on 22 March and were seen passing through Gotha (M 51/J 06) on the same25X
druf (: 51/J 15)-Emleben railroad line, southeof Gotha, near Petriroda in late Earch. They were occupied by a unit wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm Celiber, some of which were toyed by caterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden berracks buildings. (2) h. The quarters of the Kindel (: 51/E 97) troop training grounds were still un- occupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No 3h was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Bouernfeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, h km northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the artillery insignia. approximately 150-mm celiber, some of which were toyed by caterpillers and some by trucks, were seen at the low wooden berracks buildings. 1. The quarters of the Kindel (1.51/H 97) troop training grounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Eighway No 34 was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Beuernfeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the	3.	druf (* 51/J 15)-Maleben railroad line, southeof Cotha, near Petriroda in late
The quarters of the Kindel (1:51/E 97) troop training (rounds were still unoccupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Highway No 34 was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Deuernfeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Crosson Lupnitz. The troop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the		artillery insignia and guns of an 25X1 occupied on 2 April. Individual construction details were seen replacing the struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Fighway No 64 was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Beuernfeld north of Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The troop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the	(1
struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. No new constructions were seen. Highway No 34 was widened on each side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Beuermfeld north of Grossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the	14.
side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Beuernfeld north of Grossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The trop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 25X1 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the		struts of the lean-to roofs of the tank parking lot north-northeast of Crossen Grossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Grossen Lupnitz. The troop training grounds appeared to be occupied by not more than 200 to 300 men. 25X1 5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the		side of the road by almost 2 meters from the junction to Devernfeld north of
5. Two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and with the		Crossen Lupnitz as far as point 355.5, 4 km northeast of Crossen Lupnitz. The epenlets were seen at the Misenach (L 51/H 76) railroad station on 27 March. They later left the town in the direction of Stockhausen on truck Notor vehicles seen in Misenach, driving in the direction of Stockhausen-Kindel, CLASSIFICATION COUTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY Document No. No Change in Class.		25X1
CLASSIFICATION SENTIAL CONTROL/US OFFICIALS UNLY Document No. No Change in Class.		epoulets were seen at the Misenach (L 51/H 76) railroad station on 27 March.
CLASSIFICATION SENTIAL CONTROL/US OFFICIALS UNLY Document No. No Change in Class.	(1 [
Document No. No Change in Class.		OLACCIFICATION FIDENTIAL TO AND ADDITION OF THE CONTRACT OF TH
No Change in Class.	HARRICON, AND	CLASSIFICATION SUBMITTOOTHEOLYDS OFFICIALS ORLY
No Change in Class.		Document No.
Declassined To Te & C		No Change in Class.
Class, Changed 10: 18 3		Class. Changed To: TS S C
Approved For Polosco 2006/08/08 : CIA PDP82 00 Polosco 2006/08/08 : CIA PDP82 00 Polosco 2006/08/08		25X1 Auth. 1 A SEP 1978

SECURITY INFORMATION

Approved For Release 2006/08/08 : CIA-RDP82-00457R012000250007-8

1h. Leolumn of 15 trucks. without superstructures. including 25X1 25X1 Which later left in the direction of Lindenau (H 52/2 11), was seen on Stalin Allee formerly Frankfarter Strasse, in Lei,mig (F 52/2 21) on 25 worch. Every other truck was coupled to mother truck. (11) Comments.			SECURITY INFORMAT ON 2	25X1
25X1	25X1		• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
25X1 which later left in the direction of Lindenau (1 52/2 11), was seen on Stalin Allee formerly Frankfurter Stresse, in Loicaic (7 52/2 21) on 25 worch. Every other truck was coupled to another truck. (11) 25X1 Comments. (1) This information again indicates that the commend-post exercise which had been conducted in that area was largely terminated in 1ste Larch. The motor of which are known to belong to the area of the Mighth Second Cds Army, of the 1st Feez Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) Those observations cover the artillery training area in the nonthwest section of the Ohrdrof troop training grounds which is known from previous information. The consense information on the stall belong to the inidentified artillery stricted of the XAVIII Ods Ata Mills Corps from Gere. Troop sovements between Mera and Ohrdroff and the guns belong to the inidentified early as Fabruary 1952. The meanum information on the size of Eisenach-Kindel 25X1 Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training frommas have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Cds Mtz Mills Div. (b) Units of the 6th (?) Cds AMA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigebrucek in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual case motions see sketch attached to a previous report. Authough only individual detachments of the 6th has rank Div mae been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units agaarontly arrived in Ferder-Tarkendorf in carly April. See . (6) Cds R. Regt of the Third Cds Neez army. (7) No change was noticed at the Weisswaner troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Neez Div had not arrived at the troop training rounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Neez Div had not arrived at the troop training counds on 7 April. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Toenedorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corre		7 }.	/ column of 15 tracks without superstructures installed	25X1
seen on Stalin Allee formerly Frankfurter Strosse, in Loipzig (* 52/2 21) on 25 worch. Every other truck was coupled to another truck. (11) Comments. (1) This information again indicates that the command-post exercise which had been conducted in that area was largely terminated in late worch. The motor locks Army, include only individual vehicles of an army signal unit of the Second Cds Army, of the last Necz Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obrdref troop training prounds which is known from provious information. These observations over the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obrdref troop training prounds which is known from provious information. These observations of the XAVIII dos has Hille Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Gera and Obrdreff artillery unified of the XAVIII dos has Hille Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Gera and Obrdreff artillery unified of the XAVIII dos has Hille Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Observed until early April. The motor vehicles seem in Misemach belong to the 57th Cds htt Hille Div. (b) Units of the 6th (?) Cds AAA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koonicpbruck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual came poctions see sketch attached to a previous report. Atthough only individual detachments of the day that he was a family which is stationed in the Eardeutsche Maschinentsbrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the 91st Cds R. Regt of the Third Cds Necz Army. (7) No change was hoticed at the Weisswaner troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Necz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Necz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Themsdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a c			A COLUMN OF TO FINGE STREET STREET STREET seen on Stalin Allee formerly Frankfurter Stresse, in Lobesia (* 152/2 21) on 25 worch. Every other truck was coupled to another truck. (11) Comments. (1) This information again indicates that the command-post exercise which had been conducted in that area was largely terminated in late farch. The moture most of which are known to belong to the area of the Mighth Gds Army, include only individual vehicles of an army signal unit of the Second Cds Army, of the 1st Mess Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obrdref treep training grounds which is known from previous information. The constant of the Obrdref treep training grounds which is known from previous information. The constant information grounds which is known from previous information. The previous artillery training grounds which is known from previous information. The constant information grounds which is known from previous information. The constant information of the staling grounds to the indentified as artillery brigade of the XXVIII Gds Htz Bifle Corps from Gerg. Troop movements between Gerg and Obrdref which is taling company to the form of the form which is the form of the form o	25X1	20/(1	which later left in the direction of Lindenau (N 52/E 11), was Comments This information again indicates that the command-post exercise which had been conducted in that area was largely terminated in Lite Jarch. The motor been conducted in that area was largely terminated in Lite Jarch. The motor most of which are known to belong to the area of the Kighth (ds Army, include only individual vehicles of an army signal unit of the Second Ods Army, of the 1st Necz Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obteref treep training grounds which is known from previous information. The grown belong to the inidentified artillery sriged of the XAVIII dds Atz Rifle Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Remained Obteref Second Attained Components in Misenach Helphy to the Second Will Remain the motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Wifle Div. (4) Indeed. Components of this division were also transferred to Koonfystrucck in the summer of 1951. (5) For dotails on the individual cash sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (5) For dotails on the individual cash sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (6) The object of the Third Cds Necz Tray which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AA division of the Third Gds Necz Tray which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AA division of the Third Gds Necz Tray which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AA division of the Third Gds Necz Tray which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AI indicates that the bulk of the 9th Necz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (3) All notor vehicles belong to the 9th Necz Div. (4) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFU. which is pr		•
(1) This information again indicates that the command-post exercise which had been conducted in that area was largely terminated in late Jarch. The motor most of which are known to belong to the area of the Eighth Gds Army, include only individual vehicles of an army signal unit of the Second Cds Army, of the late Meez Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) Those observations cover the artillary training area in the northwest section of the Oberter troop training grounds which is known from previous information. The gurs belong to the inidentified artillary brigade of the Kaviii Gds Etz Eifle Corps from Gera. Troop movements between Pera and Oberture as February 1952. (3) The meann information on the area of Eisenach-Kindel as a February 1952. (4) Colly preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Etz Hifle Div. (4) Units of the 6th (?) Gds AAA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Kocnigebrucek in the summer of 1951. (5) For dotalls on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous Rithough only individual detachments of the 6th Res Tank Div nac been in the comp for tenk firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Ferder-Tarkendorf in early April. See . (6) Cds N. Eegt of the Third Cds Eecz Army which is stationed in the Eorddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AA division of the Third Gds Eecz Army which is stationed. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Meez Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All notor vehicles belong to the 9th Meez Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Tuensdorf was previously reported. (10) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the 60fG. Which is pre-been conducted in that area was largely terminated in late ward. The motor most of which are known to belong to the area of the Eighth (ds Army, include only individual vehicles of an army signal unit of the Second Cds Army, of the lat Kecz Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) Those observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obrdref troop training grounds which is known from previous information. These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obrdref troop training grounds which is known from previous information. The gens belong to the indentified artillery brigede of the XXVIII Gds Mtz Rifle Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Sera and Obrdref gens belong to the indentified artillery brigede of the XXVIII Gds Mtz Rifle Corps from Gere. Troop movements are not information on the sere of Eisenach-Kindel 25X1 The present information on the sere of Eisenach-Kindel 25X1 The present information of the STAR Gds Mtz Rifle Div. Doubt of the Gds Mtz Rifle Div. (b) muits of the 6th (?) Gds AAA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigebruck in the summer of 1951. (c) For dotalls on the individual came sections see sketch attached to a previous report. Although only individual detaclments of the 6th das Yank Div Mac Boen in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Ferder-Parkendorf in early April. See . (d) the rocket launchers belong to the 91st Cds R. Ecct of the Third Gds Eccz Army which is stationed in the Eordeutsche Mac Advision of the Third Gds Eccz Army which is stationed in the Eordeutsche Teopre indicates that the bulk of the 9th Eccz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All: motor vehicles belong to the 9th Eccz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Tuensdorf was previously reported. (10) The Column belongs to the motor transpo	25X1	(3)
GGs Army, include only individual vehicles of an army signal unit of the Second Cds Army, of the 1st Mecz Div and the 9th Cds Tank Div which belong to other areas. (2) These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Ohrdrer troop training grounds which is known from previous information. The gens belong to the inidentified artillery brigade of the KAVIII Ods Etz Bifle Corps from Gers. Troop movements between Gers and Ohrdruf artillery series of the KAVIII Ods Etz Bifle Corps from Gers. Troop movements between Gers and Ohrdruf artillery series of Eisensch-Kindel 25X1 (3) The present information on the area of Eisensch-Kindel 25X1 (4) Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Etz Aiffle Div. (4) Units of the 6th (?) Gds AAA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigebrueck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. Kithough only individual detachments of the 6th tas tank Div nac been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Ferder-Tarkendorf in early April. See . (6) Etc Ri Regt of the Third Cds Necz /rmy which is stationed in the Lorddentsche Maschinenfebrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the Unidentified AAA division of the Third Cds Necz /rmy which is stationed in the Lorddentsche Maschinenfebrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Cds Necz /rmy which is stationed in the Lorddentsche Maschinenfebrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division on the AA gun explacement in Tuensdorf was previously reported. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Tuensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with		(1)	been conducted in that area was largely terminated in late warch. The motor to other areas. (2) Those observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Obrdref troop training frounds which is known from previous information. 25X1 artillery brigade of the XXVIII Gds htz Rifle Corps from Gera. Troop movements between Gera and Obrdref searly as February 1952. (3) The present information on the area of Eisensch-Kindel searly as February 1952. (5) The present information on the area of Eisensch-Kindel searly april. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Aifle Div. (4) Instrument of the fold of the fert of the first of the Gth (?) Gds MAA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigebrucek in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (6) Although only individual detachments of the 6th tos Tank DIV has been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See . (6) Cds R. Eagt of the Third Cds Neez frmy which is stationed in the Nordeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Neez Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Meiswacser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Neez Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All-motor vehicles belong to the 9th Neez Div had not arrived at the Compare with a corresponding Theorem of the Muse Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding Compare unit of the GGFU, which is pre-	25X1
(2) These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section of the Ohrdrer troop training grounds which is known from previous information. 25X1 artillery brigade of the XAVIII Gds htz Hifle Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Gera and Ohrdruf early as Fobruary 1952. (3) The present information on the area of Eisenach-Kindel Colly preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds htz Hifle Div. (4) (b) 1 coaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigebrucck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (6) (7) For details on the individual camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Ferder-Parkendorf in early April. See . (8) (6) (7) We change was noticed at the Weiswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Eecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Eecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Eucadorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFG. Which is pre-artillery brigade of the XAVIII 6ds btz Rifle Corps from Gere. Troop movements between Gere and Ohrdruf early as February 1952. (3) The present information on the area of Eisenach-Kindel Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th 6ds Mtz Mifle Div. (4) Loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigebrueck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (6) The observation of the Third Comp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See (6) The rocket launchers belong to the 91st Cods RJ. Regt of the Third Cods Necz frmy which is stationed in the Eordeeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gos Necz frmy which is stationed in the Eordeeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gos Necz frmy (7) Ro change was noticed at the Meisswarser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Necz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All-motor vehicles belong to the 9th Necz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Themsdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC, which is pre-		(2)	These observations cover the artillery training area in the northwest section
nents between Gera and Ohrdruf sarly as February 1952. The present information on the area of Eisenach-Kindel Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Aiffle Div. (b) Ioaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigsbrucck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. Although only individual detachments of the 6th tos Yank Div nac been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Ferder-Tarkendorf in carly April. See (6) Cds N. Regt of the Third Cds Meez Trmy which is stationed in the Fordeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the 91st AAA division of the Third Gds Meez Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Meisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Meez Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Meez Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Thensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC, which is pre-	25X1		the gurs belong to the inidentified	5
25X1 (3) The present information on the area of Eisenach-Kindel Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Aifle Div. (4) Innits of the 6th (?) Gds AAA Div were loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigsbrueck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. Although only individual detachments of the 6th das rank Div nac been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See (6) (6) (7) Kegt of the Third Cds Meez Army. (8) Kegt of the Third Gds Meez Army. (9) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training Gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Meez Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Meez Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Themsdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC, which is pre-			ments between Gera and Ohrdruf as 2	25X1
Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles seen in Wisemach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Miffle Div. (4) Individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. (6) Cds RM. Regt of the Third Cds Mecz /rmy which is stationed in the Marchine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AMA division of the Third Gds Mecz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Meisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Mecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the motor transport unit of the GOFG. Which is pre-		(3)		25X1 seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Mifle Div. [15] [16] [16] [17] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [10] [11] [10] [11] [11] [11] [11] [12] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [10] [11] [11] [11] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [11] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [10] [11] [11] [11] [12] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [11] [11] [12] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [11] [11] [11] [12] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [11] [12] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [11] [11] [12] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [18] [18] [18] [18] [18] [18] [18] [19] [10] [10] [10] [11] [11] [12] [12] [12] [12] [12] [13] [14] [15] [15] [16] [17] [18]	25X1		Only preparations for units scheduled to occupy the troop training grounds have been observed until early April. The motor vehicles loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigsbrueck in the summer of 1951. (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. Rithough only individual detachments of the 6th tos rank plv nac been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See . (6) Cods RJ. Regt of the Third Cds Necz (rmy which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Naschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Necz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Neisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Necz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Necz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Nuensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOPU, which is pre-	25X1	GA [seen in Misenach belong to the 57th Gds Mtz Aifle Div.
25X1 (5) For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous report. Although only individual detachments of the 6th was rank Div nac been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See (6) (6) (7) The AA machine guns presumably belong to the Unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Hecz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Hecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Thensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFU, which is pre-		(4)[loaded. Components of this division were also transferred to Koenigsbrueck
the 6th was rank Div nac been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See (6) the rocket launchers belong to the 91st Cds RJ. Regt of the Third Cds Mecz (rmy which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Necz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Mecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC, which is pre-	NEV4	(5)	For details on the individual camp sections see sketch attached to a previous the rocket launchers belong to the 91st Cds RJ. Regt of the Third Cds Mecz (rmy which is stationed in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Necz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Mecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC, which is pre-	2581		the 6th tas Tank Div had been in the camp for tank firing practice, the first
Cds RJ. Regt of the Third Cds Necz /rmy which is stationed in the Nordeutsche Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Necz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Necz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Necz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Nuensdorf was previously reported. 25X1 (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. Which is pre-	25X1		major units apparently arrived in Terder-Tarkendorf in early April. See
Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine guns presumably belong to the unidentified AAA division of the Third Gds Mecz Army. (7) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Mecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC, which is pre-		(6)	the rocket launchers belong to the 91st Cds RJ. Rest of the Third Cds Mecz (raw which is stationed in the Foredentsche
(7) No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training gounds. The present report indicates that the bulk of the 9th Mecz Div had not arrived at the troop training grounds on 7 April. (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div. (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. Which is pre-			Maschinenfabrik. The AA machine runs presumably belong to the unidentified troop training grounds on 7 April. 25X1 (8) All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div. 25X1 (9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. Which is pre-		(7)	No change was noticed at the Weisswasser troop training Mounds. The present
(9) Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported. (10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. Which is pre-		403	troop training grounds on 7 April.	25X1
(10) Compare with a corresponding (11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. Which is pre-		(9)	All motor vehicles belong to the 9th Mecz Div. Information on the AA gun emplacement in Muensdorf was previously reported.	25X1
(11) The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. Which is pre-	25X1	(10)	Compare with a corresponding	\neg
		(11)	The column belongs to the motor transport unit of the GOFC. which is pre-

CONFIDENTIAL TY INFORMATION